

Seven: Today

Life Steps | February 17 & 18, 2018

Monday

Luke 23:39-43 & John 14:1-4

Describe your picture of heaven. How is it different from your current environment? What part of “heaven” are you most looking forward to experiencing?

Tuesday

Revelation 21:1-7

Can you recall a time when you were away from home and very ill? How is our longing for “home” connected to our longing for God? What do you most look forward to about spending time and reconnecting with God each and every day?

Wednesday

Luke 14:15-24

Are you an excuse maker? What are some of your standard excuses when invitations come your way? What blessings might come with a decision to quit making excuses to God?

Thursday

Luke 15:1-10

How would you describe your feelings when something gets misplaced or lost? Write about how your life might change if you felt that same urgency about people who are lost. What is your part in that search?

Friday

Revelation 22:1-7

What particular label or brokenness (vs 3) are you tired of dealing with that will forever be removed once Jesus returns? What is holding you back from claiming that healing and renewed spirit today?

Saturday

Luke 23:43 Colossians 2:6-15 | John 1:9

Just because our sins have weighed heavily on us doesn't mean God's grace can't remove that burden. Make a list of the sins, done and undone, that still weigh you down. Give them back to God, once and for all.

Sunday

John 17:1-26

Jesus prayed boldly before he went to the cross? What bold requests would you like to put before God today? How are you prepared to die to self so God, if he desires, might use you to answer your bold prayer?
