

Seven: Yours

Life Steps | February 24 & 25, 2018

Monday

Luke 2:41-52

How are you doing in terms of “being in your heavenly Father’s house”? Are you living close enough to God to hear God speak and learn? How might you hang a little closer today?

Tuesday

Luke 11:14-28

How would you describe your family of origin, united or divided? Why? (Vs. 17) If Jesus needed a human to recognize his voice and obey a directive, would he choose you? (Vs. 27-28) Assess your listening and obedience skills.

Wednesday

John 13:18-38

Which disciple or character in these verses do you most relate and why? Have you ever stopped trusting and taken matters into your own hands? Explain

Thursday

Matthew 10:1-31

Why do you suppose Jesus used our hair count as a measure of God’s care? Do you struggle with fear and anxiety? How can you rest more fully into God’s knowledge of and care for you today?

Friday

Romans 8:31-39

Have you considered how your decisions and actions affect those around you, as well as God? What gesture or gift could you offer today to assure someone they are not alone, and ultimately bless you and God as well?

Saturday

John 19:26-27

Describe the last time you had a wake-up call with an unexpected accident or death of a loved one. How has it changed you? Are there more changes you need to make in light of the brevity and beauty of life?

Sunday

Matthew 27:46 & Deuteronomy 31:6

When you fail God are you tempted to feel God has left you? Write down your gratefulness to God for never leaving you alone or unloved.
