

2 Timothy: Eye on the Prize

Life Steps | July 7 & 8, 2018

Monday

Proverbs 3:14-15 | 2 Timothy 1:13-14

Consider all that is in your life. Not just stuff, but everything-- people, pets, possessions, work, money, activities, time, etc. If you were to rank everything in terms of value, what makes the top of the list? What's at the bottom? How does the way you're spending your time align with that which is of most value?

Tuesday

Hebrews 13:7

As individuals, we are products of the people who shaped us. Who were your mentors? In your prayer time today, give thanks for those who spoke into your life and taught you throughout your life. Who do you most resemble? Who would you like to most resemble? Let someone know how they've impacted you positively.

Wednesday

Psalms 71:18

As people mentored and shaped us, we too impact others, whether we like it or not. Who are those in your life that either look to you now for wisdom/guidance/direction, or will be looking to you later for it? Are you intentional about what you share with them? How are you transmitting the faith? Pray for guidance and to know God's will for how to lead them.

Thursday

2 Timothy 2:1-2

Mission and legacy are often tied together. Take some time to imagine the legacy you would like to leave behind one day. How will the work carry on? Who do you see "passing the baton" to? Pray for clarity today.

Friday

Philippians 3:13-15 | Galatians 5:22-23

"Leading" implies movement from one place to another. One must lead oneself well before leading others. How are you leading yourself? Are you moving in a spiritually healthy direction? Consider areas of the faith in which to grow. If you're not sure, do a self-assessment utilizing the fruits of the spirit Paul teaches in Galatians.

Saturday

Romans 12:9-21

Imagine training up someone new to the faith. Using this passage, what examples can you come up with to illustrate each verse? Think of experiences in your life, observations of others, or scenes from movies you've watched. Journal or join together with friends or family members for this exercise.

Sunday

John 15:13

First responders and military personnel are just some who may risk their very lives as professional "protectors". Jesus teaches us that there's no greater love than to lay one's life down for another. Think very hard about this: for what would you give your life? Besides physical death, what are ways you give your life to the things that are important to you?
