

Now Connected: Radical Forgiveness

The Lenten Prayer of the day can be accessed on Facebook, Instagram, and pathway.church.

Monday

Matthew 26:14-35

What do you think Jesus, Judas, Peter and the other disciples were each feeling and experiencing when Jesus announced that one of them was going to betray him and another deny him? Review the 3 categories of wrongdoing. How well do you manage each category?

Tuesday

Matthew 26:36-56

What compelled Jesus to go into the garden and pray before his arrest and crucifixion? How do you think he felt when he discovered the disciples sleeping instead of praying? What distracts you from having a disciplined, focused prayer time?

Wednesday

Matthew 26:57-75

How did Jesus respond to wrongful accusations and arrest? How do you usually respond to false or unjustified accusations? How did wronging Jesus impact Peter? Who have you wronged recently? What are you going to do to right the wrong?

Thursday

Matthew 27:1-26

Reflect upon the difference between how Judas and Peter (Matthew 26:75) managed their wrongdoing guilt. How have you historically coped with feelings of guilt? Journal any new action steps.

Friday

Matthew 27:27-55

Why do you think Jesus executioners felt no wrongdoing guilt? Why do you think the 2 criminals hanging next to Jesus responded so differently to their wrongdoing guilt? Reflect on the gruesome nature of Jesus death and his response to his executioners and us as found in Luke 23:34.

Saturday

Matthew 27:57-66

What do you think Mary and Mary Magdalene were thinking and feeling? How would you describe your 2019 Lenten journey? Connect with who you have invited to Easter Services, encouraging them and answering any logistic questions.

Sunday

Matthew 28:1-20

Pray as you feel led. Consider writing out your prayer and reading out loud to God.
