

Out & About: Multiple Choice

Because we're out, and it's about us!

You are going out, and it's about the two of you. To keep it about the two of you, here are a few suggested ground rules:

1. Do not talk about money, kids (if you have them), in-laws or any other potentially relationally deadly topics. If this feels awkward, you are not alone. That is why you are doing this.
2. Reconnect
3. Recharge
4. Relax

During dinner, answer the following multiple-choice questions:

1. You are stranded on a deserted island. You can only have one thing. Which do you choose?
A) A tent

DARE ME

Choose one of the following dares, if you dare:

- Order dessert with an accent.
- Ask a couple the best choice they ever made in their marriage.
- Make a goofball face and have someone take a picture of you. Then post to Facebook and/or Instagram. Use #mupdate to tag your post.

KEEP IT GOING

Take a fun picture and post it on Facebook. Use #mupdate to tag your post.

Ask your spouse: What is the one thing I can pray about for you this week? Then pray for that thing at the same time every day for a week.
