

Colossians: ReThink | The Worthy Life

Every day: Begin your day with a prayer of thanks.

Monday

Colossians 1:1-14

What do you find appealing about the way Paul starts his letter to the Colossians? How are the results of faith, hope and love evident in Pathway Church? Your life? To whom will you write an encouraging note or text this week?

Tuesday

Ecclesiastes 3:1-15

What is your personal take away from verse 11? What do you think is the connection between the first nine verses and verse 11? What is God doing in your life that will last forever? (Vs. 14)

Wednesday

I Thessalonians 5:12-18

The worthy life is a life that gives joyful thanks to the Father. Spend your entire time praying, rejoicing and giving thanks for all of the ways God has blessed your life, including the times you personally experienced the reality of his transforming love and grace. (See message notes as needed)

Thursday

2 Corinthians 12:1-10

The worthy life endures and is patient. Endurance has to do with situations. Patience has to do with people. Identify the situational and people "thorns" that require you to rely upon God's grace to endure and be patient. In the context of these situations and relationships, what would it look like for you to be strong in your weakness? Vs. 10 (See message notes as needed)

Friday

Ephesians 4:1-16

The worthy life is growing in the knowledge of God. Describe all of the ways being in God's Word on a daily basis has impacted your life. According to this passage, what are some of the outcomes when a church is growing in the knowledge of God? (See message notes as needed)

Saturday

John 15:1-17

The worthy life bears fruit in every good work. John says a person must remain in Christ if they are going to bear fruit. Practically, what does remaining in Christ mean and look like to you? God loves effort. What efforts will you take to be more connected to "the vine?" (See message notes as needed)

Sunday

Colossians 1:1-14

How is the gospel bearing fruit in Pathway Church? How are the results of faith, love and hope evident in your life? Review your journal entries from the week. What is your most important learning or take away?
