

Oh What Fun! : The Christmas Story

Monday

Luke 1:1-25, 57-80

Zechariah and Elizabeth were devoted to God in every way but they were childless in a society that valued women for their childbearing. Reflect upon a time you trusted God even when desired outcomes were not being realized. What are your key take away lessons from this passage? Pray for and before the day is out, connect with, who you have invited to join you for Christmas Eve Worship.

Tuesday

Luke 1:26-56

Zechariah and Elizabeth were too old, Mary and Joseph were too young, yet God “favored” them both. How would you describe God’s favor? Reflect upon the ramifications of verse 27 in the story of Jesus birth and your own life story. What is God whispering to you this morning?

Wednesday

Luke 2:1-21

Read this passage out loud with your entire family. Ask them to share their favorite Christmas memory and their favorite part of the biblical Christmas Story. Invite everyone to share what the Birth of Jesus means to them.

Thursday

Luke 2:22-40

Reflect upon the lives of Simeon and Anna. What do you admire about their faith journeys? What new insights do you learn about Jesus from verse 40?

Friday

Luke 3:1-19

John the Baptist prepared the way for people to have a relationship with Jesus. Write down as many names as you can who are in your circle of influence. Reflect upon those names. How is your relationship with each preparing the way for them to have a God “aha” moment?

Saturday

Luke 3:21-37

What does baptism mean to you? What do you remember about your baptism or your baptism confirmation? Reflect upon the importance and power of Verse 22 b. Insert “daughter” if female. Is the core of your identity truly grounded in who God says you are? Explain.

Sunday

Luke 4:1-13

What are the temptations that most threaten to derail your faith journey? What empowered Jesus to resist each temptation? Begin to formulate your 2020 spiritual growth goals and strategies to attain them.
