

Oh What Fun! : What's Next

Sunday

Proverbs 16:9

Do you know you have a purpose even when you cannot articulate it into words? How have you seen God show up in 2019? When it comes to 2020, what do you hope for? What do you wish to change? Where do you feel God is calling you?

Monday

Proverbs 3:5

When is it hard for you to trust? Are you hard to trust? When has someone, or when have you broken trust in a relationship? How did it get reconciled? How has it affected your trust in God's plan for your life? Trust is something that has been broken since the Garden of Eden. The likelihood of us experiencing a breach in trust is high. What do you do when trust is broken? When you read Proverbs 3:5, what do you think about in regards to trust?

Tuesday

Galatians 5:13

Who or what do you serve? This is a question of priorities. Some of us believe we are doing well while others believe we have far to go. We can tell how we doing by calculating many hours we spend on an activity weekly. Time would report what our priority is. We would see what and who we serve based on the time spent on what we do. Does your time reflect who and what you say you serve?

Wednesday

1 Cor 10:13

Read 1 Corinthian 10:13. Who is God to you? How did you learn about who God is? How are you teaching others who God is? Take as much time as you need to journal what you discover as you think about this question. How we see God influences how we share God's love.

Thursday

Psalms 68:19-20

Think about who God is when we encounter struggle, grief, and addiction. Reflect on Psalm 68:19-20. As you do so, answer these questions. Do you believe that God is with us when we are burdened? Do you believe God can save us from any mess? Why? Jesus came to bring light to any darkness we experience, but it is easy to forget sometimes. What is your plan to grow closer to God in 2020?

Friday

Mark 10:45

Jesus came so that we can have abundant life and so we can know everlasting love. Read Mark 10:45. Is this behavior hard to replicate in your personal and professional life? How can you apply this passage to your personal and professional life?

Saturday

Romans 15:13

As you look ahead to 2020, remember that Jesus came so we can have a fresh start at any time in our life. Is there an area in your life that needs to experience the newness that Jesus provides? Does your attitude, parenting, marriage, behavior need to adjust? If you are doing great in these areas, who can you mentor over this next year? Jesus came so we can have abundant life, so let's do this together!
