

Stronger: In Love

January 18 & 19, 2020

I Corinthians 13

Which of the attributes Paul ascribes to love is the most attractive and impactful? Why? Which of these attributes are a growth edge for you? Identify relationships that really matter to you and how you need to grow stronger in love.

Tuesday

Matthew 22:37-40

Recall a time your heart was full of love for God. What was going on that stirred your deep affection for God? How do you practically demonstrate your love for God? Think of someone you view as having a deep love affair with God. What can you learn from them?

Wednesday

Galatians 5:22-25

Why do you think Paul identifies love as the first fruit of the spirit that bears evidence that someone is Christ Centered? Write at least one sentence for the remaining fruits, describing how they are connected to you being stronger in love. Consider using real live scenarios.

Thursday

I John 4:7-21

What exactly does the statement "God is love" (Vs. 18) mean to you? Reread I John 4:7-21 passage and the attributes of love described in 1 Corinthians 13. How does your second reading of these passages affect your response to this question?

Friday

Romans 12:9-21

Read this passage slowly two or three times. Considering the people you will most likely encounter over the next couple of days, what is God saying to you in this passage?

Saturday

Luke 15

What emotions does this reading evoke? Why? Who are the modern day "tax collectors and sinners" you find hard to love? Review your message notes. Which of the 3 common themes most resonates with you and why? What are the steps you are going to take to grow stronger in love?

Sunday

Psalms 143:8

Use this verse to guide your morning prayers.
