

Uncharted Water: Surviving Hard Times

Monday

John 16:1-33

What do you think the disciples were feeling and thinking as Jesus told them about his forthcoming death and departure from them? What hope do you get from this chapter that is applicable to what we are experiencing today?

Tuesday

Deuteronomy 6:4-23

God was with Israel when they were slaves in Egypt, wandering 40 years through the desert and when they crossed the flood waters of the Jordan into the Promised Land. Reflect upon past uncharted water experiences and how you realized afterwards God was with you all of the time.

Wednesday

Genesis 3:1-13

When the sin virus infected their hearts, instead of staying connected to God and each other, Adam and Eve, divided, isolated, then started blaming and shaming each other. What is your "Connection" tendency when life and relationships get hard?

Thursday

Matthew 7:24-27

Draw a vertical line in your journal. On the left list all of the things you worry about because you can't control the outcome. Then list on the right side what you can control. This passage is the closing teaching of Matthew 5-7, the Sermon on the Mount. How does this passage influence what you can control?

Friday

Genesis 1

The creation story describes God's designed structure for the order of the universe. Describe your daily, weekly structure for maintaining order and sanity for your family as we move through the uncharted waters of Covid-19?

Saturday

Philippians 1:1-6

What are you most worried about today? Why? Read verse 6 over and over again. Be specific, how does this passage give you hope for your life?

Sunday

Isaiah 42:1-13

Read this text, allowing God to speak into your current uncharted waters. Record in your journal what you sense God saying to you.
