

Life Steps

Mindset: Framework

Monday

2 Corinthians 10:1-5

Journal all your “thoughts” about Covid-19, racism and partisan politics. Circle each that is an ungodly thought. Reconstruct that thought making it obedient to Christ.

Tuesday

Philippians 1:3-11

Considering the current events in our beloved United States, what is the new good work God has started in you? (Vs. 2-6) Reread verses 9-11. What does “filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus” mean to you?

Wednesday

Philippians 1:15-26

Are you more interested in being right or being kind? How is Christ being exalted in your body? What are the practical implications of verse 21 for your life?

Thursday

Psalms 27

Seriously, sincerely ask yourself and reflect, “Am I more critical or encouraging? Do I easily notice the bad in people or do I look for the good? Do I spend more time looking for the presence of Evil or the goodness of God?” Why?

Friday

Romans 12:9-13

These verses are packed with practical yet deep ideas. Which instruction challenges you most? Explain why.

Saturday

Romans 12:14-16

Bless, rejoice, mourn, live in harmony, be humble are the key directives in this passage. Which of these directives will you follow today? Why?

Sunday

Romans 12:17-21/Matthew 5:19

Are you more of a trouble maker or a peace maker? Explain. Name the people with whom you have lately been at odds. How will you “overcome evil with good” in those particular relationships?
