Looking for the Good: Relentless Encouragers

Monday

Philippians 2:5-11

What was the “mindset” of Jesus when it came to relationships? If every person you know or meet is fighting a battle, according to this passage, how are we to respond to them?

Tuesday

Job 16:2-5

Job was fighting several different battles within himself. How do you think he felt when his friends were insensitive to his struggle? Will your family, work peers and friends say you are more of an encourager or discourager? Why?

Wednesday

Hebrews 3:12-13

Why is it important to encourage each other daily? Name the people you are going to intentionally encourage today. Pray for God’s timing and guidance.

Thursday

Proverbs 15:1,4 | Proverbs 18:1-2,4, & 21

Which one of these Proverbs most speaks to you? Why? Who are the people most influenced by your words and their tone? How did the people you encouraged yesterday respond to your life giving words?

Friday

Ephesians 4:29-32

Think of someone or some group for whom you have frequent critical thoughts or words. Write down your criticisms and count them. Write out 10 encouraging words or phrases for every critical thought or word recently spoken to them.

Saturday

I Samuel 30:1-8

David encouraged himself by finding his “strength in the Lord.” Write out the scriptures that most encourage you. Write it. Confess it. Think it. Believe it.

Sunday

Psalms 42

How does this Psalm encourage you? Who will you intentionally encourage today? Pray for God’s timing and guidance.
