Love Playlist: You Give Love a Bad Name

Daily read I Corinthians 13 and work on its memorization.

Daily Question: Who can I build up today?

Monday

I Corinthians 1:10-17; 3:1-23

Paul loves the Corinthian Church but he points out they are spiritually immature. Why do you think Paul warns them about their jealousy/envy (vs.3) and boasting (vs. 21)? What verse in this passage most speaks to you? What do you sense God saying to you?

Tuesday

I Corinthians 4:1-21

What are the dangers of being puffed up (vs.6), arrogant (vs.18) and boasting (vs.7)? In what ways do you seek the approval of people other than God? (vs. 3-4) How does this passage challenge you?

Wednesday

I Corinthians 13:1-4

What was your key takeaway from the weekend message? Why? Action Step?

Thursday

Genesis 4:1-10

Examine your own heart. List all of the ways envy taken root in your life? How has envy created rivals and dysfunction in your family circle? Pray for rivals of any kind. Pray for two or three political figures or groups who are opposite of you.

Friday

James 3:13-18

List the people you most admire for their wisdom and spiritual maturity and the people you know who need a little encouragement. How can you build both groups up today?

Saturday

Matthew 20:20-28

How are the ways of Jesus opposite of the world? Examine yourself. How are you more like the world? How are you most like Jesus?

Sunday

I Corinthians 13

From memory, write down as much as you can. Thus far, what has been your most impactful take away from our study of I Corinthians 13?
