OVERVIEW

Message: Blind Spots: Stone Droppers

Main Scripture: John 8:2-11

Group Check-In:

Get Connected: Are you quicker to condemn or forgive? Share why you think this is so.

Prayer:

In the Word:

Read John 8:2-11

1. Put yourself in the place of the woman caught in adultery. What thoughts and emotions go through your mind while in the midst of your accusers?
2. Put yourself in the place of the accusers as they approach Jesus. What thoughts and emotions run through your mind as you approach him? What changes after Jesus speaks?
3. After Jesus speaks and the plan to trap him fails, do you think the accusers were more humbled or disappointed?
4. Why did Jesus ask the woman, "Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?"
5. How might the woman feel after Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you, go now and leave your life of sin?"

Application:

1. How would you respond to Jesus' words, "Neither do I condemn you, go now and leave your life of sin?"
2. Whether you identify more with the woman or the accusers, going forward, how do you plan to respond to the truth about you?
